

Discover Springfield's Great Birding Trail!

A Guide to Local Avian Wonders

American Redstart, (T. Carter)

Gray Catbird, (T. Carter)

Find These Local Birds!

- | | |
|------------------------------|-------------------------|
| American goldfinch | Indigo bunting |
| American redstart | Juncos |
| American robin | Mallard |
| Barn swallow | Mourning dove |
| Belted kingfisher | Northern cardinal |
| Black-capped chickadee | Northern flicker |
| Black-throated green warbler | Northern mockingbird |
| Blue jay | Osprey |
| Canada goose | Pied-bill grebe |
| Cedar waxwing | Red-bellied woodpecker |
| Chimney swift | Red-eyed vireo |
| Common grackle | Red-tailed hawk |
| Common merganser | Red winged blackbird |
| Common yellowthroat | Ring-billed gulls |
| Cooper's hawk | Ring-necked duck |
| Cormorant | Rose-breasted grosbeak |
| Dark-eyed junco | Rough-winged swallow |
| Downy woodpecker | Song sparrow |
| Eastern phoebe | Swainson's thrushes |
| Eastern pewee | Swamp sparrow |
| Eastern screech-owl | Tufted titmouse |
| Glaucous gull | Warbling vireo |
| Great blue heron | White-breasted nuthatch |
| Great egret | White-throated sparrow |
| Grey catbird | Wood duck |
| Hairy woodpecker | Wood thrush |
| Iceland gull | Yellow-rumped warbler |

Welcome to the Great Springfield Birding and Nature Trail! Nestled within our city's parks and green spaces, this carefully curated collection of birding locations offers a unique haven for wildlife along the Connecticut River Watershed and the Atlantic flyway. As an official Urban Bird Treaty City, Springfield is dedicated to preserving our natural environment and supporting avian habitats. Whether you seek a peaceful stroll or a moment of tranquility, join us on a journey to discover the hidden gems of Springfield's outdoors. Grab your binoculars and explore our scenic trail today!

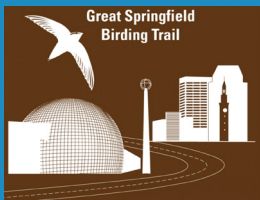

Scan here to access the digital guide and view the virtual tour of the trail.

Great Blue Heron, (J. Wang)

For more information please visit <https://regreenspringfield.org/birdingtrail>

The official sign of the Great Springfield Birding Trail. You can find this sign at each site.

- Parking
- Restrooms
- Accessible

1. Dimmock Pond at Hubbard Park

42.15051, -72.49118
205 Parker St, Indian Orchard, MA

2. Five Mile Pond

42.13958, -72.5095
1020 Boston Road

3. Loon Pond

42.14198, -72.502
1284 Boston Road

4. Blunt Park

42.12863, -72.54644
1780 Roosevelt Avenue

5. Oak Grove Cemetery

42.12102, -72.56397
426 Bay Street

6. Abbey Brook

42.1358, 72.5793
1170 Crew Street; Behind the Renaissance School

7. Van Horn Park

42.1252, -72.59095
494 Armory Street

8. North Riverfront Park

42.10952, -72.61203
State St. & West Columbus Avenue

9. Connecticut River Walk And Bikeway

42.09377, -72.58512
Entrance on West Columbus Ave at St

10. Porter Lake

42.07443, -72.56977
200 Trafton Road

11. King Phillip's Stockade

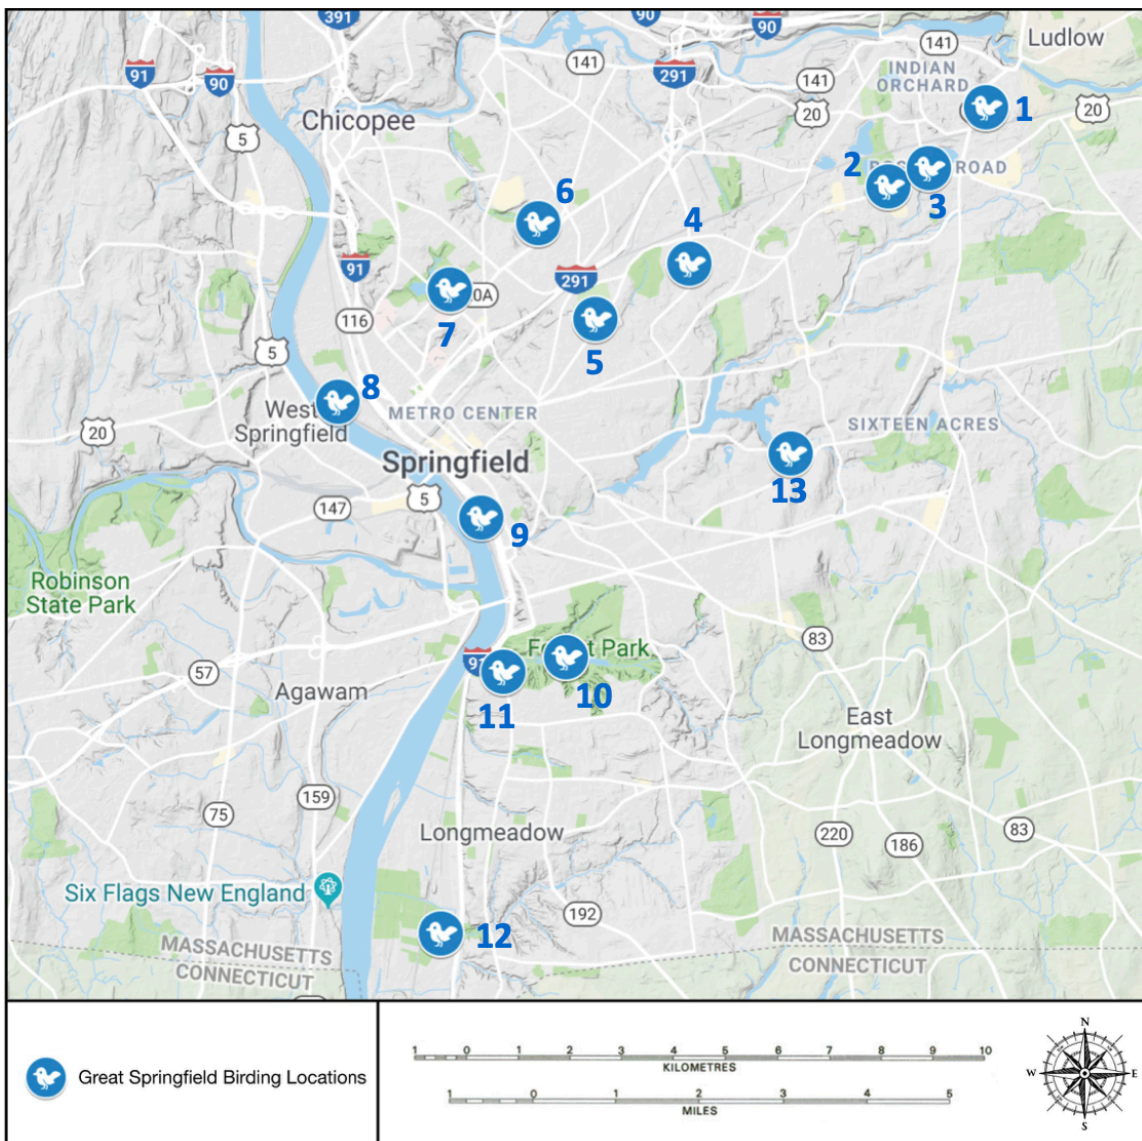

42.07206, -72.58128
70 Columbus Avenue

12. Fannie Sterbbin

42.03616, -72.59128
202 Bark Haul Rd, Longmeadow, MA

13. GySgt Thomas J. Sullivan Park

42.10276, -72.52761
South Branch Parkway

A partnership of the following:

ReGreenSpringfield

To view a digital version of the map visit <https://bit.ly/37GFSdw>